LIMA (B)

Breakfast

- 09:00 Guided tour of the more important and characteristic parts of Lima: the Monumental Center, where we will admire the colonial architecture of the Main Square (Plaza Mayor), the Government Palace, the Cathedral, the Archbishop Palace, and some old streets with vice royal mansions and balconies of Moorish style. We will also visit the Convent of San Francisco and its catacombs. Continuing with the tour we will visit the more traditional and residential parts of Lima to end with a spectacular view of the Pacific Ocean and Miraflores beaches.
- 14.00 visit The Gold Museum. Ancient Peruvians were master metalworkers. The -cire perduell or lost wax process, known across the Orient and lost in the West until the Renaissance, was the most frequent technique used by master ancient Peruvian gold and silversmiths.
On our tour of Peru's Gold Museum, visitors will appreciate a dazzling collection of gold artefacts from various pre-Colombian civilizations, some more than 3,000 years old. Metal pieces and jewellery of incalculable value in gold, silver and precious stones used by the Incas—the children of the Sun God and monarchs of the vast Inca Empire—are shown in this collection. Five hundred years ago, the gold of Peru attracted many European adventurers who conquered the Inca and founded the Vice-Royalty of Peru under the Spanish Crown.

Peru's Gold Museum also houses a valuable collection of old and modern weapons that ranks among the best in the world. The halls in this section show the Arms of the World Collection of armour, uniforms and various ancient war artifacts and weapons from various time periods around the world, some dating back to as long ago as 1300 B.C.

Breakfast

07:30 Boat excursion to Uros and Taquile Islands on Lake Titikaka. This full day excursion will take you to the highest navigable lake in the world to the floating islands of the Uros Indians, man-made islands by tying totora reeds. The Uros considered themselves Lords of the Lake; they hunt wild birds and maintain traditional fishing methods. The men have developed an extraordinary skill in weaving reeds; producing houses, boats and handicrafts, and the women are expert knitters.

Continuing to Taquile where a native community of about 400 families still lives with the traditions and high principals of the Incas. Taquile is a very important site on Lake Titikaka for its archeological remains, the sacred and ceremonial sites, the festive activities and their rituals. Taquile is characterized by its friendly inhabitants, who maintain their customs and traditional clothing. They distinguish themselves by their detailed, fine, and colorful textiles with symmetrical decorations and symbols that reflect their way of life and Andean beliefs. Lunch is included.

CUSCO / URUBAMBA (B/L)

Breakfast/Lunch

08:00 Full Day Excursion to the Pisac Indian Market and the Ollantaytambo Fortress - Morning departure for a drive through the fertile countryside of the Urubamba Valley to the colonial village of Pisac where an Indian Market takes place Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays. Other days you will tour the religious nucleus and archaeological site of Pisac. During your visit to the bustling marketplace you will have the opportunity to bargain with the natives for many different types of Peruvian handicrafts and jewelry.

Continue to the Ollantaytambo archaeological complex, the Incas built it as a fort that included a temple, agricultural terraces, and an urban area.

There are two distinct sectors: The religious and worship zone, and the residential area. Ollantaytambo was an important administrative center with probable military functions if one considers the walls and towers.

There are also traces of ancient roads and aqueducts. The town of Ollantaytambo is called a "Living Inca Town" since the inhabitants maintain very old practices and customs.

Overnight at San Agustin Urubamba Hotel.

URUBAMBA (BL)

Chichubamba Agrotourism village. It is a project developed by the residents of Chichubamba and the NGO Pro Peru, designed to help improve the economic conditions of those living in this area. The agrotourism project brings together many different families in Chichubamba who continue to farm weave or make other products in the traditional manner. Through the use of small interactive and very informative demonstrations the very friendly residents immersed us in the Andean Culture. There are several activities to choose for example:

Bee keeping, ceramics, chichi (locally brewed corn beer) weaving, chocolate, horticulture and cuy (guinea pig) breeding, potter. In addition you can sample the all natural, locally grown and freshly made typical Andean dish of cuy served with corn and potatoes.

The activities we chose were pottery, chocolate and bees keeping. We were then treated to a delicious lunch at Eufracia's home (the pottery lady). If you are reading my blog and thinking of visiting Urubamba I encourage you to visit Chichubamba and contribute to the local community.

Hike back to your hotel and either relax in the beautiful garden to read and write up our diary's, and pack for our overnight hike tomorrow to Misminay.
