

TREKKING AND WILDLIFE ADVENTURE OF NEPAL

Day 01: Arrival to Kathmandu | Transfer to Hotel (3 Star) | Welcome Dinner

Today you will arrive at Tribhuvan International Airport, Kathmandu where one of our representatives will be waiting for you to pick you up and drive you to the Hotel Green Horizon where you will be staying overnight. After a quick refreshment and welcoming, you will be visiting nearby sightseeing places in Kathmandu. We will be offering a welcome dinner in the evening as a welcome treat.

Day 02: Kathmandu to Pokhara by flight in the morning | Pokhara Sightseeing | Overnight at Hotel (3 Star)

After having breakfast in Hotel Green Horizon, our car will be waiting outside the hotel to take you to the airport early in the morning. You will be heading towards the beautiful city, Pokhara via scenic and exciting flight.

As we reach Pokhara, the real excitement will begin. Well, as it is well-known to all that Pokhara is such a tourist hub blessed with tons of places of interest that the people who travel Nepal obviously aims to visit Pokhara once in their journey. Our professional and highly experienced guide will make you explore much of those places. Namely, the places that you will be exploring are Fewa Lake, Barahi Temple (A temple in the middle of the lake), World Peace Pagoda, Davis Fall, Mahendra Cave, Bat Cave, and the beautiful viewpoint Sarangkot.

You will be staying overnight at Kuti Resort, Pokhara

Day 03 – Trekking Day 1: Pokhara to Tikhedhunga via Nayapul | Overnight at Tea-house

This is the day you initialize your trekking. After your early breakfast, you will be driving up to Nayapul enjoying the notable sceneries and then the real fun commences. Hiking thru lush bushes, crossing the suspension bridge, seeing eye-dazzling sceneries, cascading waterfalls and so on, we will reach Tikhedhunga. The warm hospitality and welcoming of the locals, their traditional houses and culture will be surprisingly beautiful.

You will be staying overnight in a local tea-house.

Day 4– Trekking Day 2: Tikhedhunga to Ghorepani | Overnight at Tea-house

A long and demanding trek waits for you. After crossing the suspension bridge on the Bhurungdi River, you will be trekking to the Ulleri, a village inhabited by Magar community, climbing on the stone stairs. You will be continuing the exploration through rhododendron forests, green meadows, cultivated fields, and smaller streams. You may spot one of the several birds such as redstarts, kingfishers, dippers, forktails along the river and magpies, treepies and others along the cultivated areas.

The trail continues through the settlement at Nangethanti to reach the destination of Ghorepani. You will have the beautiful view of magnificent mountain ranges including the Annapurna, Dhaulagiri, Nilgiri, Hiuchuli and Tarke Kang including others.

You will be staying overnight in the best available teahouse.

Day 05– Trekking Day 3: Ghorepani to Tadapani via Poon Hill | Overnight at Tea-house

One of the most beautiful days in the entire trekking expedition is in store for the trekkers. You will start early to watch the breathtaking sunrise from the hilltop of Poon Hill (3,193m). This magical moment when the golden rays of sun paints the giants of Mt Dhaulagiri (8,167m), Annapurna massif (Annapurna I, Annapurna II, Annapurna III, Annapurna IV, Annapurna South), Mt Machhapuchhre or Fishtail Mountain (6,997m), Dhampus Peak (6,021m), Tukucho Peak (6,920m) and others is beyond description and worth the 45 minutes uphill climb to the top of the hill.

Capturing the moment shall be a treat for the rest of your life. You will then descend the hill and continue your trek for Tadapani after the lunch. On the further section of today's trek, you will be navigating through the colorful rhododendron forest, seen blooming like anything in the spring season. Along the ridge and through the pine and rhododendron forest we reach Deurali and further descend leads us to Tadapani. You will be staying overnight in the best available teahouse.

Day 06– Trekking Day 4: Tadapani to Ghandruk | Overnight at Tea-house

The trek becomes more beautiful as we move further along the trekking trail. You will walk down through the steep trails initially and pass through the beautiful rhododendron forests. The beauty of this forest, especially when the rhododendron flower blossoms, takes the beauty of the trail to the next level. The blossom of cherries further enriches the trail as you move further and reach the village of Ghandruk. Ghandruk is the second-largest Gurung settlement in Nepal and provides further insight into the lifestyles of villages that have traditionally provided the backbone of the famous Gurkha regiments. This village will provide you with the view of Fishtail, Hiunchuli, and Annapurna South along with the Gurung Museum as the other highlight. Cherish the rich Gurung culture in the village. And for your kind information, Ghandruk has been enlisted as one of the top 13 most beautiful tourist destinations in Asia according to an international America based news media- CNN.

You will be staying overnight in the best available teahouse.

Day 07– Trekking Day 5: Ghandruk to Pokhara | Overnight at Hotel (3 Star)

You are already on the other part of the trekking expedition. You will be reaching Pokhara via Nayapul today starting the trek with descending to Birethati along the stone steps moving through villages and cultivated lands. You reach to Ghandruk on similar path and to the Modi River. The downhill walk continues as you pass through the small town of Birethanti. Little after the trek you will reach to the initial point of our actual trekking, Nayapul. You will be driving back to Pokhara from this place. This marks the end of your on-foot journey and you can rest along the ever-beautiful Lakeside in Pokhara.

You will be staying overnight in Kuti Resort, Pokhara.

Day 08: Pokhara to Chitwan via Drive (Private Vehicle 4 hours) | Program Start
